

CHC33015 CERTIFICATE III IN INDIVIDUAL SUPPORT (AGEING, HOME AND COMMUNITY)

RELEASE 4 - 08/09/2020

This qualification reflects the role of workers in the community and/or residential setting who follow an individualised plan to provide person-centred support to people who may require support due to ageing, disability or some other reason.

Work involves using discretion and judgement in relation to individual support as well as taking responsibility for own outputs. Workers have a range of factual, technical and procedural knowledge, as well as some theoretical knowledge of the concepts and practices required to provide person-centred support.

Common learning outcomes achieved from the training

- Provide support to people living with dementia
- Apply safe work practices
- Work legally and ethically within the health care sector
- Meet personal support needs
