CHC43015 CERTIFICATE IV IN AGEING SUPPORT

RELEASE STATUS - CURRENT
RELEASE 2 - 08/12/2015

Ashley Institute of Training

Ashley Institute of Training (ASH) offers nationally recognised courses for a wide range of industry sectors.

ASH ethos is to deliver the highest quality training to meet the needs of Australia's workforce; being both employers and employees alike.

ASH works closely with employers to ensure their training meets industry needs and therefore assists students to know that by studying with ASH they will have the job skills employers require.

We are dedicated to helping students achieve their goals, whether it be to start an exciting new career, build and develop existing skills, or to prepare for moving up in your career.

Our trainers are passionate about sharing their extensive experience, and are committed to delivering engaging and interesting classes to prepare students for successful careers.

When you choose ASH you are choosing a trusted, quality registered training organisation (RTO) that has the backing of our ASX listed parent company Ashley Services Group (ASX:ASH).

This qualification reflects the role of support workers who complete specialised tasks and functions in aged services; either in residential, home or community based environments. Workers will take responsibility for their own outputs within defined organisation guidelines and maintain quality service delivery through the development, facilitation and review of individualised service planning and delivery.

Workers may be required to demonstrate leadership and have limited responsibility for the organisation and the quantity and quality of outputs of others within limited parameters.

Common learning outcomes achieved from the training

- Provide support to people living with dementia
- Apply safe work practices
- Work legally and ethically within the health care sector
- Meet personal support needs
- Develop and maintain partnerships
- Work with diverse people
- Meet personal support needs
- Coordinate services for older people
